Reading Lists

Year 3 and 4

Remember, reading should be fun. Choose what interests you, but every so often try a new style or a new author. If you don't like it, go back to what you know and try again a few weeks later. Many books you might like to read yourself, but some you might want to share with your parents. Here are some books to get you started.

If you want to laugh try,

Paula Danzinger – You Can't Eat Your Chicken Pox

Peter Johnson - How to Train Your Parents

Louis Sacher – Marvin Redpost

Are you Looking for adventure? Try,

Willis Hill – Dragon Days

Pat Hutchins – The Curse of the Egyptian Mummy

Is Football your game? How about,

Alan Durant – Up for the Cup

Michael Hardcastle – Own Goal

Do you like stories about School? You might like,

Ann Martin – The Kids in Miss Coleman,s Class

Jean Ure – Woodside School Series

Fancy a spot of time travel, then opt for,

Toby Forward – Travelling Backward

Sam McBratney Stranger from Somewhere in time

*If you often say "It's not fair!" then you have to read
Bel Mooney – It's Not Fair*

And don't forget there's Horrid Henry, Milly Molly Mandy, Flat Stanley, Charlie (and the Chocolate Factory), Clarice Bean, the famous five.....and of course Harry Potter!

Or if you're really not sure where to start, don't worry just look at the books below, find a few in the library, read the blurbs, choose what you like, read – and enjoy!
